The Lancaster School in conjunction with The Children's University of Mexico and Wales, cordially invites you to attend the first formal presentation of the Children's University Programme in Mexico at the British Council premises on Tuesday the 9th of October at 9:00 am.

Guest Speakers

Phil Basset
Children's University Coordinator for the University of Wales
David Jones
Children's University Coordinator for Mexico

Please accept this invitation to participate in support of narrowing the opportunities divide within Mexican society and in giving Mexican children from the state sector a real chance to develop new skills and opportunities that will help to prepare them for the challenges and difficulties of an ever changing and increasingly competitive world market.

Please confirm your availability to attend this conference and to participate in this unique opportunity to make a real difference in the lives of Mexican Children by corresponding with David Jones: dave@lancaster.edu.mx Stating whether you or a representative from your company/organization will or will not be able to attend the presentation.

With thanks in advance for your commitment to making real changes in children's lives.

David Jones.
